The purpose of this guide is to show you how to establish a Permanent Income for you to enjoy within a 30 day period. After that period, you will simply work to increase your income until you have reached the level of comfort you desire. This is where the fun really begins! So without further delay, let's get to it!

Why Aren't More People Wealthy?

The answer is very simple. People are simply too busy earning a living to make any real money. We never seem to have the time, money, or experience to get a "business" off the ground or we simply don't want to take the risk. So, many of us have resigned to the fact that we will have to work for someone else. This is a sad situation and it can even be dangerous...

There is no such thing as job security anymore and even with a job, the odds are stacked against you. Government statistics show that only 2% of Americans who reach retirement are wealthy. In fact, of the people who are currently working, only 1% of us are earning over $85,000 a year! With no security and very little chance of financial independence... not to mention the 9 to 5 grind, the pressure, the lack of leisure time and lack of control, you should be convinced by now that a job is not the answer. Changing your financial future is no longer just a wish or a dream... it's a must!

So What Are Your Options?

There are plenty of opportunities out there in America, but which ones are actually going to put money in your pocket and continue to do so for years to come? There are countless franchises and small businesses you can start, but do you have $100,000 to invest and 80 hours a week to spare? Most of us don't.

I'm sure you've seen those late night commercials offering instant riches haven't you? Some of these sound tempting... but where are all the people who have made millions with these various programs? I'll tell you... they are the ones making the commercials! I think we can pass on these programs.

There are also plenty of money making schemes out there that promise wealth but never deliver. Many are the same old plans like chain letters or envelope stuffing. Have you ever met anyone who has ever made any money at these? They don't work! Period!

Of course there is MLM, multi-level marketing, or network marketing. This industry has gone through a surge over the past few years and it is creating many wealthy individuals. Unfortunately, it is also creating a lot of poor people. The trouble is, you simply don't have any control over your income because you are dependent on that one company for your pay-check. Thus, you are subject to the same insecurity as you are with a job. You are still at the mercy of one company and if it goes under... so does your income!

You could try your hand at mail order. The mail order field is booming right now and many people are cashing in... especially people who provide information! However, very few people make it in mail order because they lack a proven plan and "direct-marketing" expertise. This is definitely not a field for the inexperienced!

All of these scenarios boil down to a basic problem: Most of us never seem to have the time, money, or experience to start a business or we simply don't want to take the risk. We are also dependent on only one source of income which gives us very little control over our financial future. If one thing happens to that source of income... we can lose everything! This is one of the worst situations anyone can be in, but unfortunately, most of us face this every day of our lives. It is obvious that something has to be done... and fast!

Well, the good news is... something has been done about this dilemma and now you are going to read about it!

The Secret of Creating Lasting Wealth

A study of some of the wealthiest people in America revealed that most of them came from all walks of life, with no special skills or talents. Their success has little to do with their experience or environment, but rather their knowledge of a solid opportunity which they acted upon. So the first key was they took action.

Second, they made sure that their income would continue to grow even if they were not actively working. Some call this "royalty" income or "royalties" because the income continues without any additional effort. This is very important because you cannot get ahead if you have to repeat the work over and over again in order to make a living. Most people simply cannot take time off for very long before their source of income dries up. But how can you enjoy your money if you continually have to bust your back for it? This is why a continuous income is very important.

Lastly, these wealthy individuals made sure that they had income from many sources so they would never be dependent on any one source for survival. Some of the largest family fortunes were created by using a method of splitting up their income into several areas so they would never be at the mercy of a single company or investment. This is one of the only ways to create lasting wealth in today's volatile environment and it has proven to be very successful for centuries! In fact, this method has been responsible for more personal fortunes over the last 80 years than any other financial practice!

But here is the million dollar question: How do you take these methods and use them to create a permanent income for yourself... starting today? Here is the answer...

Creating Your Own Permanent Income

In order to create a permanent income for yourself, you will need to apply all of the valuable lessons that we have just discussed. You will need to make sure that you have a continuous, repeat income that continues whether you are working or not. You will need several sources of income so you will never be at the mercy of one company or industry. This will ensure that you enjoy a rich, rewarding lifestyle with the time and money to enjoy life and the security you can count on. The secret to putting these principles to work for you today is in your approach.

The Secret

In order to create a lasting, continuous income for yourself and family, you will need to use the same principles that have been creating fortunes for centuries, but instead of building a "Portfolio" of investments like the Vanderbilts or Rockefellers, you are going to build a group or "Portfolio" of the top financial opportunities available today! In the same way that investment advisors group the best investments together into a portfolio or fund, you will build a powerful group of profitable products and services so you will never be dependent on any one source of income.

There are plenty of terrific programs available today that offer tremendous opportunities for financial independence. They offer products and services that are needed by everyone and can easily produce a handsome profit for you right away. The problem is, if you were to put all of your time and money behind only one product or service and something happened to the company, product, or industry, you could be out of business overnight! This is the trap that many people fall into so they are constantly starting over and never getting ahead.

However, if you could combine some of the top products and services into a profitable group and put your effort behind the group, instead of just one program, you can have the security of receiving income from several sources and the power of having your income multiplied by each program. It is an incredibly powerful concept that can enable the average person to earn money just like the wealthiest people in America. Now you can have your own "Portfolio" of top financial opportunities to build a permanent income for yourself and family.

NOTICE: You do not need to worry about finding the right programs for your Portfolio. A research program was instituted 6 years ago to uncover the top opportunities for financial success. The very best programs were researched, tested, and then carefully selected for this Portfolio. These programs represent some of the most profitable products and services for earning a continuous income. You will now have access to these top programs for your own use! More on this later!

By now, you should realize that you must have a continuous, repeat income that is protected by several sources in order to truly have the freedom and security to enjoy the money you are making. We can't spend 80 hours a week trying to raise ourselves above the crowd and still enjoy life... and we certainly can't risk everything by relying on only one source of income anymore. There are too many people filing for personal bankruptcy these days to prove this point. So we need to take action right now to build a permanent income that will not fail us even if times get tough.

What You Will Need

In order to build a permanent income for yourself that will give you the freedom and time to enjoy it, you will need proven programs that offer desirable products and services needed by everyone. The products and services should provide a continuous, repeat income so that you don't have to repeat your efforts every week to keep ahead. This will allow you to enjoy plenty of leisure time while still increasing your income.

Most of the wealthy people in the country discovered this strategy years ago. You don't see them slaving over a desk or cold calling on people day after day do you? Of course not! They realize that you must have an income that continues to grow even when they are on vacation or simply relaxing by the pool. I'm sure this type of income sounds desirable to you... doesn't it?

Next, your sources of income must be organized into a group or portfolio just as if they were investments in a Mutual Fund. This spreads the risk and provides maximum security for your income. The key here is to start with one source of income and use the Profits from this one to fund the rest. In other words, you will start with one product or service and use the money you make from this to not only improve your lifestyle, but to also expand into other products and services. If you do this, you can work with profits only and you never have to use any of your savings. This is how you build personal fortunes in a very short period of time. This is how the big money has been made in America.

I hope you realize that the strategy you have just read is one of the most powerful techniques for creating a lifestyle that most people can only dream about. This method can provide a permanent income and plenty of time to enjoy it... and that's the kind of lifestyle we all want... isn't it? Time to relax without worrying about money... the ability to vacation whenever and wherever we want... that feeling of waking up in the morning and knowing you own the day... instead of your job owning you. It is called freedom and that's what this guide is all about. You now have the knowledge to create the lifestyle of your dreams and no one can take this knowledge away from you. However, I'm sure you are now wondering "how do I put this strategy to work for me today?" Well, I have some good news for you. The work has already been done for you.

A research program was developed to select the top programs for financial success. You will now have access to some of the best programs and opportunities available anywhere. This group of products and services was put together over the past 6 years and represents the best America has to offer. The portfolio has products and services that are needed by everyone and most of them provide continual, repeat income.

You will be shown exactly how to use these products and services to build a permanent income for yourself and family. All of the guess-work has been taken out giving you the benefit of years of development by experts in this field. It is an exciting and very rewarding opportunity to take part in a program that is changing the lives of people all over the country!

Once you have finished reading this guide, go through the enclosed information (if information has been provided) or call or write the person who gave you this guide for more details. By the way, please don't confuse this program with some of those other "multi-level" portfolio plans or those "lifetime" down line building programs that you may have seen if you've been in this market. These programs are built strictly around multi-level or network marketing companies and they are very limited to this specific market.

This program is not limited to certain types of opportunities and it is created on the most successful business principles that have been creating fortunes and estates for years. With the portfolio of leading products and services and complete instructions, you can build a permanent income that will take care of you and your family for many years. And if that sounds good, then listen to this...

A Valuable Tool!

As part of this program, you will have the Right to Distribute this Guide to help build your own business. This is a wonderful tool because you will never need to "sell" or push products or try to explain the valuable concepts yourself. All you do is simply introduce the guide you are now reading to others and let this guide do the work for you. This guide will explain the profitable concepts we have been discussing and the supplementary information (you will receive later) will introduce the terrific products and services. You simply allow people to read this valuable information and they will instantly understand the program and will be anxious to get started toward a better life.

The beauty of this method is that anyone can now do this... whether you are shy, introverted, or simply don't have the time to speak with people. Let the guide speak for you and communicate the many benefits of this program. This is one of the easiest and efficient ways of building a continuous income without having to personally "sell" someone on something!

One of the best parts of using this method is you can now share these concepts with hundreds or even thousands of people all across the country by simply getting a copy of this guide into their hands. When they see how easy and profitable this program is, they will be glad to get involved which will help to expand your business. As they begin sharing this guide with others, you will earn an income from all of the products and services that they buy or sell. You will have your own group of dealers working for you every day! This is a powerful way to build a substantial income that can last a lifetime... and it can all start by simply giving out a few guides. Simply make copies of this guide and you're in business!

You can give away or mail these guides to people who are interested in improving their lives (and who isn't nowadays?). Almost everyone could use more money these days and now you have one of the best tools for showing people how to do this. In fact, many will thank you for the valuable information and will want to get involved right away. What a wonderful way to help others while building an income for yourself. It doesn't get much better than that... and you'll love the feeling you get from helping others!
